The Atlanta Chapter of The Compassionate Friends meets the second Tuesday of each month from 7:30 - 9:30 p.m. at the:

First Christian Church of Atlanta 4532 LaVista Road, Tucker, GA 30084

Upcoming Meetings:

April 10 May 8 June 12

The Atlanta Chapter also offers a Sibling Group at the same time as our regular monthly meeting.

The Compassionate Friends, Inc. is a mutual assistance, self-help organization offering friendship, understanding, and hope to bereaved families. Anyone who has experienced the death of a child of any age, from any cause is welcome. Our meetings give parents an opportunity to talk about their child and about their feelings as they go through the grieving process. There is no religious affiliation. There are no membership dues. The purpose of this support group is not to focus on the cause of death or the age of the child, as it is to focus on being a bereaved parent, along with the feelings and issues that evolve around the death experience of a child.

To Our New Members

Coming to the first meeting is the hardest, but you have nothing to lose and everything to gain! Try not to judge your first meeting as to whether or not The Compassionate Friends will work for you. At the next meeting you may find just the right person or just the right words said that will help you in your grief work.

To Our Members Who are Further Down the 'Grief Road'

We need your encouragement and your support. Each meeting we have new parents. THINK BACK – what would it have been like for you at your first meeting if there had not been any TCF "veterans" to welcome you, share your grief, encourage you and tell you, "your pain will not always be this bad, it really does get better!"

YOU NEED NOT WALK ALONE.
WE ARE THE COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS

Atlanta Chapter Welcomes Two New Co-Leaders, as One Steps Down

Two men from the Atlanta Chapter of The Compassionate Friends have stepped forward to become co-leaders and support group facilitators, as one co-leader has announced plans to resign.

Effective June 30, Cathy Willis Spraetz is stepping down as chapter co-leader and support group facilitator.

Ghakarhi Btembke and Joseph Hobbs have both accepted roles as co-leaders and facilitators, effective immediately.

The chapter thanks Cathy for her guidance and support, as we welcome the involvement of Ghakarhi and Joe in their new roles.

Following is a letter and poem Cathy wanted to share with the chapter.

Dear Atlanta Chapter Compassionate Friends,

It is with a heavy heart that I announce my resignation as chapter co-leader and support group facilitator, effective June 30th. I am not one to ever give up or resign a task I believe in and so this is difficult for me. But I think the one thing we learn with great clarity after our child dies is what we can realistically accomplish and what we must do to save ourselves for this continued journey.

Recent events have caused me to re-examine, once again, what is most important in my life and the life of my family. Some of you may know that my grandson Noah, who was born the day we buried my son Evan, has recently been diagnosed with Autism. While we are very hopeful for him, we are guarded and know that in order for there to be a real change for the positive, our family has to do all we can for him. He is only 2 ½ years old and is receiving six hours of formal therapy each week. But there are many more hours in his week that require us to become therapists ourselves to ensure the best possible outcome for him. So, that is how I've chosen to spend my time.

Evan was so excited about the baby coming and being an uncle to Noah. So I also do this to honor Evan and all that he stood for. He was the only one of my three boys to talk with excitement about being a parent himself. He even named his children as early as middle school. Anna, if it was a girl, and Julian, if it was a boy. One of my most precious memories of him is just days before his death, talking with him about what a wonderful father he would be some day.

I often think back on my first TCF meeting, several months after Evan's death. I remember the urge... not to walk, but to run as fast as I could...away from the reality that simply by being there, in the presence of other grieving parents, I had to face the hard truth that Evan was never coming back. I remember the metallic taste in my mouth that originated from that physical part of my grieving. I remember the audible gasp as I entered the room and saw all of the wounded souls who were bonded to me and I to them as soon as we made eye contact. I remember not being able to speak, crying instead through the entire meeting. How is it, I thought, could this one paramount thing in my life inextricably link me to those who were present, those who had gone before, and those who sadly, will continue to come and need the support of The Compassionate Friends?

Now that a little time has passed, (and I stress the "little" part because 2 ½ years is nothing) I am able to find some joy again, mostly in this precious little grandson Noah, who is so full of life and so happy and so wonderfully and mysteriously made. He is a constant reminder of all that is good in my life. So, I will do what I need to do for him and for my family.

There are many capable leaders and facilitators for our chapter. Please know I will continue to think of all of you and hope to see you when I can.

My best wishes and peace to all of you, Cathy Willis Spraetz

An ocean of grief, my heart has gone cold A dull ache leaves its mark Nothing more, nothing more But the sound of the waves lapping the shore

An ocean of grief, my heart has been crushed With no sense of rhythm Its beat is all wrong And a longing, a yearning for days that are gone

An ocean of grief, my heart washed over with nothing much left But the salt of my tears And dreams for you my soul no longer hears

An ocean of grief, my heart brought to its knees And left in its wake The dark place my heart dwells

A rocky beach filled with sharp broken shells

An ocean of grief, the damage is done
My heart changed forever
To a great gnawing pain
And a knowledge that nothing is ever the same

With this ocean of grief comes a fragile belief With my heart I'll hold fast 'till my last night falls on this earthly plain That one day soon I'll be near you again

Atlanta Chapter to Carry Banner in Annual Walk to Remember

Again this year. the Atlanta Chapter invites you to add your child, sibling or grandchild's name to a banner that chapter members will carry in the 8th annual Walk to Remember. The Walk, traditionally held on the last morning of the TCF National Conference, honors the memory of our children gone too soon.

This year's Walk to Remember will be held on Sunday, July 22 in Oklahoma City. The National Conference runs July 20-22.

Chapter co-leader Joe Hobbs and his wife plan to attend the conference and participate in the Walk to Remember. Other chapter members who would like to participate also are encouraged to attend the conference.

Whether or not you can participate in the National Conference and Walk to Remember, you are invited to add your child's name to the banner. See page 4 of this newsletter for a form to return. The deadline for adding your child's name to the banner is June 15.

If you do plan to attend the National Conference, you are encouraged to reserve your hotel room soon. Hotel rooms at the conference site usually sell out quickly. A block of rooms has been set aside for TCF at two Oklahoma City hotels: the Renaissance Oklahoma City Convention Center Hotel (attached to the convention center via a skywalk) and the Courtyard by Marriott Downtown Oklahoma City (across the street). Reservations for both hotels can be made by calling 1-800-859-6877.

In addition to programs for parents, the National Conference includes a full program designed especially for siblings.

The Oklahoma chapters are inviting all families – whether or not they can attend the National Conference – to decorate the Convention Center with Dream Catchers in memory of their children. They are asking for a $10 donation for each Dream Catcher. To download the template for the Dream Catcher, go to: http://www.tcfwalktoremember.net/

Financial assistance to cover some conference registration fees is available, if needed. Contact Cindy Durham of the Atlanta Chapter for details: cindy_durham@bellsouth.net.

Details about the conference program are available on the National TCF Web site: www.compassionatefriends.org

John Coggins III Foundation Gives $1,000 to Chapter's Sibling Group

The John Coggins III Foundation, Inc., has given a $1,000 gift to the Atlanta Chapter of TCF's sibling group. The Foundation honors the memory of John Coggins, III who was born in Atlanta on March 8, 1988, and died Oct. 24, 2005, at the age of 17. A memorial Web site can be found at http://john-coggins-iii.memory-of.com/

A portion of the funds will be used to purchase two books for siblings who are members of our chapter, or whose parents are members of our chapter. The books given to chapter members include "Surviving a Sibling" and "This Healing Journey." If you are a sibling or have children who have not received copies of these books and would like to, please let us know.

Funds from this gift also will be used to help pay the sibling registration fees at the National TCF Conference for any siblings who would like to attend. And, a brochure about our chapter will be distributed to guidance counselors at area high schools so they can tell teens who might need us about TCF.

Atlanta Walks For Our Children and Siblings Gone Too Soon

The Compassionate Friends National Walk to Remember will be held at 8 a.m. Sunday morning, July 22, in Oklahoma City, the National Conference host city, prior to the closing ceremony.

First held in conjunction with the national conference in 2000, this Remembrance Walk has quickly become a highlight for conference-goers with between 600 and 1,000 joining together hand-in-hand, arm-in-arm to cover the two-mile course arranged for the event.

This is our way to honor the memories of children and siblings who we will never forget.

Families who have had a child die, but are unable to attend the conference or walk, are invited to include their child's name on our "Atlanta Walks" banner carried by members of our local Atlanta TCF Chapter attending the Oklahoma City Conference.

If you would like to have your child, sibling or grandchild's name included, please complete the following form and return it to us as soon as possible. The deadline is June 15.

Spanish-Speaking TCF Group Needed for Families in Atlanta

Our TCF chapter is investigating the possibility of starting a support group for parents who speak Spanish. If you know a bereaved parent who speaks Spanish and might be willing to lead this group, contact Ghakarhi Btembke at 678-291-9935 or unicorngab@comcast.net.

7CF Presents Employer Recognition Award to Atlanta Chapter Member

In March, the Office of Inspector General Office of Audit Services, Inc., was honored with The Compassionate Friends Employer Recognition Award for it overwhelming support of Lydia Burns.

Burns, who lives in Tallahassee, but participates in Atlanta Chapter meetings when she is working in Atlanta, nominated her employer for this award to show her appreciation for the support her co-workers gave her after her son died from heart complications.

The award was accepted by Pete Barbera, regional inspector general for the Southeast, and Barbara Hehemann, administrative officer.

In her letter of nomination, Burns said that, after two years, her co-workers "still stand by my side and support me when birthdays, anniversaries and holidays approach. They let me cry without saying I should move on. They listen when I talk about my wonderful young man. They encourage me to do what feels right and not worry about what others think."

Tears Still Fall

I wish that I could stop crying
But nothing I do seems to help
You were taken from us without warning
And life just seems so worthless.

I try to think of the fun we had
The times we laughed and played
But my heart just pushed those thoughts aside
Since you went away.

For some brief moments I can almost laugh But then I remember your poor face The face of a child lost and gone From us and the human race.

You never had a chance to marry
Or have a child of your own
Sometimes I think life would have been easier
If I too were never born.

But then your childhood
That did bring me so much joy
Would be in my heart and I realize
I cry because I miss the love you brought.

So the world may never got to know you My sweet and loving young man But my mind is full of the great memories That will always make us who we are.

I will cherish every moment
You and I had to share
And someday the tears of sorrow
Will bring my heart joy that is hidden there.

Love you, my son This the end of the second year and nine months of your departure.

${\cal C}$ harity Game at Turner Field Helps Raise Funds for MRI Machine

By Cindy Durham Atlanta Chapter, TCF

Two months before my son Tony died in 2004, he received the thrill of a lifetime. As part of the St. Pius X Catholic High School Varsity baseball team, he pitched the last three innings of a charity baseball game played at Turner Field.

For a high school pitcher, getting to sit in the Braves dugout and then pitch from the same mound that so many great pitchers have pitched from over the years, it was a dream come true.

This charity game is played every year – featuring Georgia vs. Georgia Tech at 7 p.m., and a high school game immediately before it. St. Pius has been invited to play again this year on April 24, this time facing Norcross High School at 3:30 p.m.

The purpose of the game is to raise money toward the purchase of an intra-operative MRI machine to treat children with brain tumors at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta.

This machine enhances the view of a child's brain during surgery, which ultimately benefits both doctor and patient. But the machine is expensive and scarce, which is why fundraisers like the Spring Baseball Classic are so important.

Three years ago, I was supportive of this effort to help raise funds to help purchase the MRI machine. But, our main focus was on our team and selling enough tickets to earn a second invitation to play in the game.

Perspectives change after you have a child die. It's still an exciting opportunity for the St. Pius baseball team. But, it's so much more than that. I'm more interested now in wanting to see funds raised to purchase this MRI machine so, perhaps, it can help to save another family from going through what my family has gone through. If this equipment can help to save the life of another child, what a wonderful thing that would be.

This year's game will be bittersweet. It will be wonderful seeing my daughter sitting in the dugout with the team (as scorekeeper), but it will also bring back so many memories of one of Tony's last games.

But, it's also a chance to help play a role in helping children facing brain tumor surgery and maybe to help keep another family from needing to join our group.

If you'd like to join us at the game, please do. Your $10 ticket will give you a wonderful afternoon/evening of baseball – with some of the best seats you'll ever get at Turner Field. But it also will go to a very worthy cause.

St. Pius needs to turn individual ticket orders and corporate sponsorships in by April 16. Contact me at cindy_durham@bellsouth.net if you'd like to buy tickets or consider a sponsorship.

I Carry Your Heart With Me I carry your heart with me (I carry it in my heart)

I am never without it
(Anywhere I go you go, my dear; my darling)

I fear no fate (For you are my fate; my sweet)

I want no world (For beautiful you are my world, my true)

And its you are whatever a moon has always meant And whatever a sun will always sing is you

Here is the deepest secret nobody knows (Here is the root of the root and the bud of the bud and the sky of the sky of a tree called life: Which grows higher than soul can hope or mind can hide)

And this is the wonder that's keeping the stars apart

I carry your heart (I carry it in my heart) E.E. Cummings

Faith – as a Support Group Topic

At our chapter meetings each month, we ask chapter members to stay away from prescribing solutions for others. Instead, we ask them to speak from the perspective of what works for them.

Likewise, religion can be a touchy subject. For some, religion and their faith is what helps them through. But, some members experience a very difficult time with their faith following the death of a child. So, we ask members to avoid religion during the sharing sessions.

We are considering, though, following the example of a TCF chapter in Denver that focuses on the subject of "faith" during one meeting a year. The Denver chapter says that its annual meeting about faith is one of the best-attended meetings of the year.

The point of that meeting isn't to preach faith or one particular religion. Rather, it focuses on "how my child's death has affected my faith." The point of the discussion isn't WHAT you believe, but rather HOW your beliefs have been affected by the death of your child.

The Atlanta Chapter's Steering Committee wants your feedback. Would you be interested in seeing one upcoming meeting devoted to this topic? Or, do you think this is something our chapter should stay away from addressing at a chapter meeting?

One possibility – if we decide to do this – would be to divide the parent group into two groups that month. One group would discuss the subject of faith and the other would focus on other topics.

Please tell us what you think. E-mail: cindy_durham@bellsouth.net

News Briefs

Two TCF chapters in Georgia have recently closed – the North Georgia Chapter (which met in Gainesville) and the South Atlanta Chapter (which met in Jonesboro).

Two new TCF chapters have opened in Georgia – one in Mount Vernon and one in Brunswick.

Upcoming Chapter Meetings

We reach out to you with the understanding and love only another bereaved parent can offer. Attending meetings and learning from others what has helped them is one way to ease the pain of losing a child. We welcome you to join us at the Atlanta Chapter of TCF.

Upcoming meetings will be held on April 10, May 8 and June 12 at the First Christian Church of Atlanta, 4532 LaVista Road, Tucker, GA 30084. The meetings are from 7:30-9:30 p.m. Our sibling group (ages 12 and up) meets at the same time and place.

Lending Library and Book Reviews

We have a large lending library at our meetings. We also welcome book donations. If you have grief books you would like to donate, we will include inside the front cover of the book a "Donated in Memory of ______" And include your name and your child or sibling's name.

We also welcome "book reviews". If you have read a book which you felt was helpful on your grief journey, please let us know. Send book reviews and other articles, poems, pictures and remembrances to Cindy Durham for submission in our monthly newsletter. E-mail cindy_durham@bellsouth.net or mail to The Compassionate Friends, 1364 Sanden Ferry Drive, Decatur, GA 30033.

Special Birthday Table

Our chapter has a monthly Birthday Table. This is a special table set up for those who have a child, grandchild or sibling's birthday in that month. Please bring a photo/memento and share a special memory of your child. You are also welcome to bring your child's favorite food or birthday cake to share with the group. We hope you will take this opportunity to share your child with us.

For more information, please call Tamie Dodge, our birthday table coordinator, at 770-982-2251 or Dodgecat2001@vahoo.com

We are the surviving siblings of The Compassionate Friends.

We are brought together by the deaths of our brothers and sisters. Open your hearts to us, but have patience with us. Sometimes we will need the support of our friends. At other times we need our families to be there. Sometimes we must walk alone, taking our memories with us, continuing to become the individuals we want to be. We cannot be our dead brother or sister; however, a special part of them lives on with us. When our brothers and sisters died, our lives changed. We are living a life very different from what we envisioned, and we feel the responsibility to be strong even when we feel weak. Yet we can go on because we understand better than many others the value of family and the precious gift of life.

Our goal is not to be the forgotten mourners that we sometimes are, but to walk together to face our tomorrows as surviving siblings of The Compassionate Friends.

Gifts of Love

A love gift is a gift of money to The Compassionate Friends of Atlanta. It is usually in honor of a child who has died, but it can also be from individuals who want to honor a relative or friend who has died, a gift of thanksgiving that their own children are alive and well, or simply a gift from someone who wants to help in the work of our chapters. The following donations are in support of the Atlanta Chapter newsletter, candlelight service, Web site and other outreach.

All chapters within TCF are totally dependent on funds from our families. We DO NOT receive funds from our National Office. Everything we need to operate our local chapters are paid directly from our local resources and our local family contributions. Thank you to all who contribute and support your local chapters. Some people contribute in memory of other's children.....this is a wonderful way for others to say "I am remembering your child." Other "Gifts of Love" are evident by all the compassionate and giving volunteers we have within our TCF Atlanta organization.

Love gifts to the Atlanta Chapter of TCF should be made payable to The Compassionate Friends and mailed to our treasurer: Jayne Newton, 808 Brentway Court, Lilburn, GA 30047.

We need not walk alone. We are The Compassionate Friends.

We reach out to each other with love, with understanding and with hope.

Our children have died at all ages and from many different causes, but our love for our children unites us.

Your pain becomes my pain just as your hope becomes my hope.

We come together from all walks of life, from many different circumstances.

We are a unique family because we represent many races and creeds. We are young, and we are old.

Some of us are far along in our grief, but others still feel a grief so fresh and so intensely painful that we feel helpless and see no hope.

Some of us have found our faith to be a source of strength; some of us are struggling to find answers.

Some of us are angry, filled with guilt or in deep depression; others radiate an inner peace.

But whatever pain we bring to this gathering of The Compassionate Friends, it is pain we will share just as we share with each other our love for our children.

We are all seeking and struggling to build a future for ourselves, but we are committed to building that future together as we reach out to each other in love and share the pain as well as the joy, share the anger as well as the peace,

We need not walk alone. We Are The Compassionate Friends share the faith as well as the doubts and help each other to grieve as well as to grow.
