Supporting Family After a Child Dies

Grief support after the death of a child.

The mission of The Compassionate Friends is to assist families toward the positive resolution of grief following the death of a child of any age and to provide information to help others be supportive.

The Compassionate Friends is a national nonprofit, self-help support organization that offers friendship, understanding, and hope to bereaved parents, grandparents and siblings.

There is no religious affiliation and there are no membership dues or fees.

The secret of TCF's success is simple: As seasoned grievers reach out to the newly bereaved, energy that has been directed inward begins to flow outward and both are helped to heal.

The vision of The Compassionate Friends is that everyone who needs us will find us and everyone who finds us will be helped.

The Compassionate Friends of Atlanta Siblings Group

Both of these groups have a Facebook Group. If you have a Facebook account, we invite you to join.

Information and Education

Part of our mission is to promote better understanding of parental and sibling grief, and to raise awareness of The Compassionate Friends.

In addition, TCF distributes informational materials to professionals in hospitals, hospices, funeral homes and churches, as well as to other concerned individuals.

Lending Libraries

Most TCF chapters maintain a lending library of books, audio tapes and videos.

Support Group Meetings

Monthly support group meetings are the heart of The Compassionate Friends. These gatherings provide a safe and caring environment in which bereaved parents and siblings can talk freely about the emotions and experiences they are enduring. Parents and siblings receive the understanding and support of others who have "been there."

Through the years, the hope for the future that is provided through these sharing sessions has been more helpful than anything else in resolving the grief of bereaved parents. Siblings, grandparents and other adult family members are also welcome at TCF meetings.

Monthly Birthday Celebrations

If your child, sibling or grandchild has a birthday and you would like to bring a memento to share please do. Also if you would like to bring your child's favorite dish or dessert to share with the group that would be awesome. We will have a table set up for the food and birthday mementos. (We ask that you come 5 or 10 minutes early to set up so we can get our meeting started at 7:30.)
